Genoa, May 2.

SIR Lambert Blackwell Envoy extraordinary of England, has caus'd 3 Prizes, (2 of which were Genoueſe Ships whoſe Lading was for the Service of the 2 Crowns of France and Spain, and the other a Neapolitan Veſſel,) to be releas'd; becauſe the Engliſh Frigates that are in our Port took them within the Limits of the Sovereignty of the Sea that is claim'd by this Republick. That Miniſter went hence to day in a Genoueſe Gally that is to carry him to Leghorne. Here are arriv'd 60 Veſſels from Toulon, under Convoy of 6 Ships of War carrying from between 50 to 70 Guns each: But the latter have not entred the Port. Of theſe Ships 4 are laden with Bombs, Powder, Bullets, and other Ammunitions of War; a Merchant Ship call'd the St. John Baptiſt, fitted out at Cadix, having on Board 400000 Pieces of Eignt beſides a great deal of Merchandize; 17 Tartans laden with 18124 Setiers of Corn, [a Setier is 12 Buſhels,] for the Army of the Duke of Vendome; 11 Tartans having on Board 23300 Cannon Balls, 800 Barrils of Muſquet Bullets, 1400 Barrils of Powder, 100 Bales of Sand-Bags, 15 Bales of Arms, 22 Cheſts of Boots, 33 Bails of Cloath, for the ſame Army; 20 Tartans laden with Merchant-Goods for Genoa, 5 Spaniſh Barks laden with Wine, Brandy, Oil, &c. The French have demanded of the Inhabitants of the Town of Nice 10000 Livres, beſides 20000 which they have already extorted from them: They are undermining the Walls of that Town. 2 Regiments of French brought from Naples having been landed at la Speccie, one of them is march'd by this City towards Milan; but if the Men continue to deſert ſo faſt as they have done ſince their Landing, this Regiment will be very thin by that Time it get thither.
